PHOTOS FROM KENTUCKY

HI ARTISANS

I WANTED TO SHARE A LITTLE OF MY TWO WEEKS IN KENTUCKY, I LOVED IT. STAYED WITH FRIENDS AND THEY TOOK ME TO THE KENTUCKY HORSE PARK IN LEXINGTON, CUMBERLAND FALLS, YODER'S AMISH STORE THAT WAS FANTASTIC! HOME MADE SOAPS, BUTTER, BREADS AND PASTRIES, CHEESES AND CANNED EVERYTHING. MY FAVORITE PLACE WAS, THE ROCKCASTLE RIVER TRADING COMPANY ON THE OLD DIXIE HIGHWAY IN THE DANIEL BOONE NATIONAL FOREST. HAS SO MUCH TO SEE AND SO MUCH HISTORY OF THE LOCAL CARLOFTIS FAMILY. FABULOUS GARDENS ON THE BANK OF THE ROCKCASTLE RIVER, AN OLD ONE ROOM POST OFFICE, A ONE ROOM SCHOOL HOUSE, AND SO MUCH MORE.

I HAD A GREAT TIME AND WILL GO AGAIN NEXT MAY.

SEE YOU ALL ON THE 13TH,

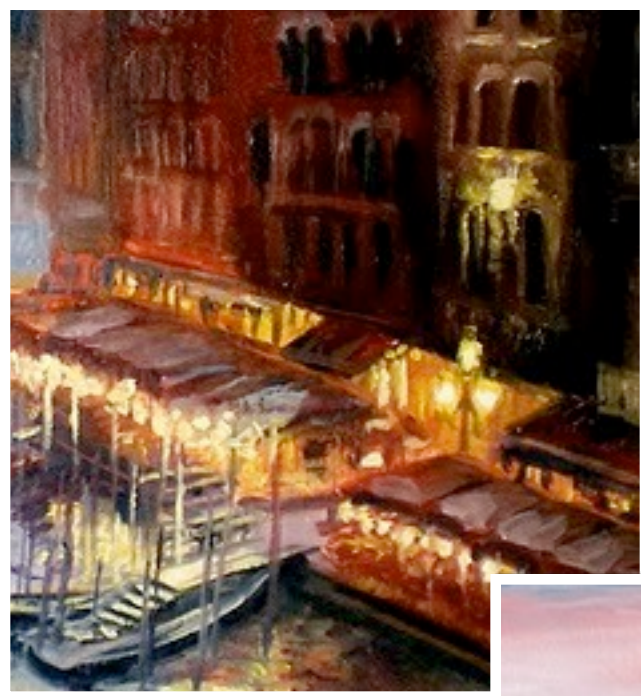

BRENDA

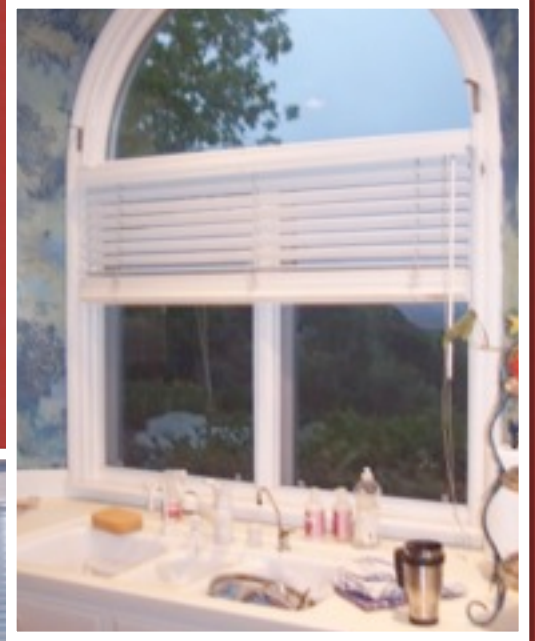

You have to get up early for photos like this!

AUDREY RECCHIA'S KITCHEN

YES, THIS IS THE BIG AND BEAUTIFUL KITCHEN THAT WE KNOW AND LOVE. AUDDREY, WITH HER TWICE-OPERATED-ON FOOT, WRAPPED IN COMPRESSION BANDAGES, RE-PAINTED IT!

HOW MANY LAYERS, HOW MANY HOURS? WE WILL HAVE TO GO SEE IT FOR OURSELVES IN ORDER TO BELIEVE IT. JUST BEAUTIFUL, AUDREY!

URSULA BAUMANN'S LATEST!

Ursula and Urs have a booth at the La Jolla Farmer's Market every Sunday. Their Swiss specialty is a healthy yogurt and fruit recipe call Muesli.

After looking into buying printed T-shirts we decided to make them ourselves. The stencil is ordered via internet from Woodland Manufacturing. I had to talk to them to get the Umlaut on the u of Muesli. They are very cooperative and send you a graphic design if you need to see where the bridges are in the stencil. Cost just below $25. The fabric paint is Velveteen from Michaels. After steaming the print the characters start to become raised. Very neat process. The shirts are from Michaels as well. They sell them in any color, reg. $3.99. Tomorrow we put them out for sale and see where we stand..

What has Teri Cardot been doing?

We had a great time on Opening Day at the Fair.*

Wonder what Katherine Hunter is doing?

Hi Everyone,

I am sorry I have not been able to put more time into the Children's Hospital Project, and will get back to that as soon as I can.

As for me, and what I have been up to, I have been accepted into the Clinical Pastoral Counseling program at Children's Hospital and will begin serving as Chaplain at the main facility in July.

Needless to say, painting projects have been on hold, but I hope to remedy that soon!

It will be fun to hear about what everyone is doing!

The President's June Newsletter

Hello, Artisans

I hope you enjoyed seeing what some of our members are doing this month. Since these were the only contributions received, I guess everyone else is REALLY coasting!

I know some people are traveling, some are busy with company or kids out of school---I hope all of you are having a nice beginning to your summer.

We will have our next meeting at Melanie's Modello Studios on July thirteenth at six o'clock. It will be a hands-on workshop, led by Joe Signs of Modern Masters Paints. Subway sandwiches, drinks and two boards will be provided to everyone. RSVP's are required by July eleventh. Please respond to Brenda Glad at brenda.glad@cox.net.

See you there!

Teri Cardot
